Points of Note:

- Alien Alright has three releases to his credit:
 - Howard Good's Radio Sessions (2004)
 - The First Impression EP (2005)
 - The Exodus Is Here (2008)
- Latest offering, The Exodus Is Here, was inspired by records from the late 60's-early 70's, adopting the 7-song format and approach of albums like The Stooges' Fun House, and Neil Young's Everybody Knows This Is Nowhere.
- Each of the three release features a different sound and musical style. Debut, Howard Good's Radio Sessions (2004), is largely acoustic, and its follow-up, The First Impression EP (2005), uses looped beats to combine straight forward Rock with Hip-Hop and Funk.
